

PRIORI MARKETPLACE

Priori works with in-house legal teams at companies of all sizes to connect legal departments with the right outside counsel for projects globally, saving them time and money. Priori's clients include everything from Fortune 500 enterprises to leading technology companies.

Today, Priori's vetted network has more than 8,000 attorneys at firms of all sizes in all 50 states and 55 countries covering more than 700 practice proficiencies.

Using the Priori Marketplace, in-house legal teams can find a network of attorneys for a wide-range of outside counsel needs, from overflow support and staffing to local counsel and niche expertise.

HOW IT WORKS

- Submit Your RFP: Our interactive questionnaire streamlines the request for proposal process for legal projects using data.
- Global Vetted Attorney Network: Our network membership has more than 8,000 attorneys, enabling us to be a single-source solution for outside counsel hirings. Each attorney in our network has been vetted using a three-stage vetting process including an online application, video interview and reference checks.
- Data-Driven Matchmaking: Our technology matches the structured RFP data against our network attorneys to generate a custom shortlist of qualified attorneys. We match thousands of data points to ensure your in-house team gets the right attorney for the legal project.
